

Inspiring Your Employees to Greatness - And Retain Them

Olympian “Jungle” Jim Hunter

In 1972, he became the first Canadian male skier to win the World Championship Bronze medal in Combined Event (Downhill, Giant Slalom and Slalom) at the Winter Olympic Games in Sapporo, Japan

Jungle Jim Hunter was a member of the Canadian Men’s Alpine Ski Team. His daring on the race course lead to his nickname as the original “Crazy Canuck”.

Today, Jim is a motivational speaker. He brings the same perspective to the challenge of pursuing excellence in the workplace.

Set the benchmarks as high as possible and leave a lasting impression with your employees and teams by having Jim Hunter apply his W.I.N.ning Formula to your business.

Presentation: Inspiring Your Employees to Greatness- *And Retain Them

When: 8:30 a.m. Coffee & Muffins, 9 – 10:00 a.m. Speaker
Thursday, March 4, 2010

Where: Conference Room, Provincial Building
810 – 14 Avenue Wainwright

Cost: Free. Please call 780-842-7500 to register.

Sponsored by:

Government of Alberta ■